

THE BOON ENDICOTTE.

The Endicotte crowd in Washington assume to be the leaders of society there, and base their right to that position on their peculiar exclusiveness. The manner in which they have chosen to distinguish themselves from the common herd is to indulge in boorish snubs to every one with whom they come in contact.

On of their favorite tricks is to keep distinguished guests waiting at dinner, and they aim to engineer their snubs so that the more distinguished the guest, the longer they wait. Recently they kept the President and his wife waiting half an hour at the dinner table for the miserable social toad stools—the Endicottes—to turn up.

If Endicotte would buy a last year's Beadle's dime book of etiquette and merely glance over it, he would be able to appear to better advantage as a gentleman. He does not seem to know the commonest amenities of civilized life, and wallows in ignorance of his own shortcomings.

The Sharon Case.

The Supreme Court of California, has decided that Sarah Althea Hill, was the legal wife of the late William Sharon, and also gives her about $15,000, and a chance to bring suit for a share of the community property. It is the general opinion that this case, remarkable in the history of notable cases will be compromised as a half million dollar basis.

The Sharon case was opened September 8, 1883, by the arrest of Senator Sharon on complaint of William M. Sharon on a charge of adultery with a young woman named Gertie Deitz and alleging Sharon's marriage with Sarah Althea. On October 20, 1883, on motion of the prosecution, the charge was dismissed, there being no law covering the case.

On October 3d following a bill in equity was filed in the United States Circuit Court by W. Sharon against Sarah Althea Hill, praying that the alleged contract of marriage should be delivered up and canceled on the ground of fraud. After much testimony and argument the Court finally ordered the document delivered up for cancellation. But of course was not.

On November 2, 1883, Sarah Althea filed a complaint in the Superior Court for a divorce from Sharon on the ground of adultery. The trial began March 10, 1884, and lasted till September 17, 1884, allowing eighty-one days of actual trial.

December 24, 1884, Judge Sullivan rendered a decision establishing the validity of the marriage and granting a divorce.

February 10, 1885, Judge Sullivan issued an order granting plaintiff alimony from January 8, 1885, at $2,500 per month and $55,000 counsel fees.

February 25, 1886, defendant appealed the case to the Supreme Court of California who have just sustained the Lower Court by a vote of four to three.

How to Save Trees.

A reliable farmer, writing to an agricultural journal, says if you bore a quarter-of-an-inch hole into a tree that is infested and inject as much dry sulphur as possible, then insert a small plug to keep the sulphur in place, it will cure blight, make the tree strong, and in no way injure it. This is a very valuable boon to fruit growers, as the sulphur goes through all parts of the tree, being absorbed from the heart, and makes it a good healthy color. The writer of the article saw trees that were nearly dead from some kind of insect, that were living and had a beautiful, thirty green appearance after being treated as above. This is one of the most valuable discoveries of the age to fruit growers, and we present it for the benefit of our readers.

—If Mr. Randal retains his ideas of protection he will probably have to leave his party. He will be welcomed by the Republican party, where he really belongs.
